The Jefferson Hotel, Richmond, VA

Opened in 1895, The Jefferson Hotel is one of only 31 hotels to carry both the Mobil Five Star and the AAA Five Diamond ratings. Forbes FYI magazine called it the "Best Hotel in America." It is a member of both Preferred Hotels and Resorts Worldwide, and Historic Hotels of America. The Jefferson comes replete with rich tapestries, antique replica furniture, embellished faux-marble columns, a 70-foot high ceiling with a stained-glass skylight, and a magnificent sweeping staircase hauntingly similar to the one in Gone With the Wind. In addition to its lavish 262 guest rooms and 18 opulent meeting/banquet rooms, The Jefferson also boasts a 1,500-square-foot presidential suite, two restaurants, and an indoor swimming pool.

The Hermitage Hotel, Nashville, TN

The Hermitage Hotel is the only AAA Five Diamond and Mobil Five Star Hotel in Tennessee, as well as five of its contiguous states. After undergoing a $20 million restoration project, The Hermitage reopened on Valentine's Day, 2003, featuring new amenities like DVD players in every room, plus personalized storage trunks for frequent guests. Located across from the state capitol, The Hermitage has 123 suites and rooms and was designed in 1908 by J.E.R. Carpenter. The hotel opened in 1910 and features elegant furnishings, including a beautiful skylight. The Hermitage Hotel is the only remaining grand hotel in Nashville and the only commercial Beaux Arts structure in the state of Tennessee. The hotel's restaurant, The Capitol Grille, has been nationally recognized and voted the city's best dining room. Listed on the National Register of Historic, The Hermitage thoughtfully combines both convenience and splendor.
